

Indian Music Society of Central Illinois

In association with

The Hindu Temple of Bloomington Normal (HTBN)

Proudly presents

Advaya

(Celebrating the Unity of Indian Music)

Smt. Saraswathi Ranganathan is a versatile Veena artiste with a dynamic track record of individual and collaborative performances, workshops, teaching at prestigious venues across the US and India. Saraswathi passionately believes in her goal of bringing people together in one platform through the eternal fragrance and perennial freshness of artistic unique music that cuts across all barriers of race, religion, culture, and color. She endeavors for refreshingly soft music aesthetics that can be intimately experienced in the rapturous dimensions of the listeners' hearts – with an aim to create a joyous and harmonious space in this cosmos.

Vidushi Sangeeta Bandyopadhyay, is one of the leading vocalists of the present generation belonging to Lucknow, Patiala and Indore Gharana and a rare musician to receive extensive training from Sangeetacharya Chinmoy Lahiri, Ustad Munawar Ali Khan and Pandit Kamal Bandyopadhyay. She has also studied Bengali Kirtan from Vidushi Chabi Bandyopadhyay, Old Bengali songs from Sri Chandidas Mal, Bengali folk song from Sri Paresh Dev and Bhajan from Pt. B. D. Patekar.

Venue: Central Hall at the HTBN, 1815 Tullamore Ave, Bloomington IL - 61702

Day and Date: Saturday, April 30th 2016

Tickets: $65, $35 and $10

Time: 4:00 PM to 6:00 PM

Event Sponsorship: $250 and above*

For Information, tickets and sponsorship please contact

Mukesh Gandhi – 309-287-3682

Chetan Desai – 309-287-2624

Prasanna Mate – 309-664-6043

Uday Deoskar – 309-662-6232

www.indianmusicsociety.org

www.htbn.org

*(part of the sponsorship towards IMS membership)