Shakir Khan belongs to the 8th generation of the famous Etawah Gharana. He is the eldest son and disciple of Ustad Shahid Parvez Khan. Shakir gave his first public recital at the age of eleven. He has performed in prestigious music conferences in India like the Dover Lane Music Conference (Kolkata), Saptak Music Festival (Ahmedabad), Bombay Festival (Mumbai) among many. He has also performed in U.S. and Europe. Shakir has been appreciated as a prodigious talent by great masters such as Pandit Hari Prasad Chaurasia, Pandit Jasraj, Pandit Shiv Kumar Sharma and Ustad Zakir Hussain. Shakir's exquisite sense of sur and laya is reflected through his performance. He has distinguished himself by winning a Government of India merit scholarship and first prize at the All India Radio (AIR) Music Competition.

Aditya Kalyanpur was groomed under the vigilance of late Ustad Allarakha and Ustad Zakir Hussain from the age of five. Aditya is considered as one of the most promising torchbearers of the Punjab Gharana. At a young age, he has lived up to the reputation of his teachers, mastering the intricacies of the Tabla to smoothly accommodate himself to the requirements of the main artist. Honored with the title of 'Taal – Mani', he is the recipient of ITC's prestigious "Vidyasagar Award" as well as the "Sangeet Visharad".
